The Nebraska Baptist State Convention

The thirty-sixth anniversary of the Nebraska Baptist State Convention convened at Beatrice on Monday October Fifth and closed its sessions on Friday October ninth. The"Fereword" of the Convention was "The Evangelization of Nebraska." The entire program was arranged to bring practical methods and full knowledge of facts to the attention of the churches throughout the state. The topic was considered from the point of view of State, National and World-wide influences. The duty of Baptists toward the religious needs of Nebraska was made to stand out in striking manner, but it was always with the view to enlarge and more effective service through out all the world.

The standing of the denomination in the state is a matter of Mrs. Pearson has been visiting much gratification to the workers here and all over the country.
